Official Memorandum.

The Government of His Highness the Maharaja have resolved to release a certain number of prisoners and to remit a portion of the sentences of other prisoners in all Jails in the Mysore State on the 1st January 1903 as an act of clemency and grace, and as one of the measures for celebrating the auspicious occasion of the Coronation of His Most Gracious Majesty the King, Emperor of India.

2. It is proposed to release prisoners belonging to the follow-ing classes, namely:-

I. General offenders.

II. Female prisoners.

And the following orders are issued by Government under each of these heads:-

I. General Offenders.

3. The Government of His Highness sanction the release on January 1st, 1903, of not more than ten per cent of all the prisoners under confinement in the State. In selecting the prisoners to be released, the principles enumerated in the succeeding paragraphs are to be followed.

4. In the first place, there are three classes of prisoners who must be excluded from consideration, namely:-

1st, those whose conduct during their imprisonment in jail has been bad and turbulent;

2nd, those, under life sentences, whose original offences were of a kind to make the convicts permanently dangerous to society or public order, whenever they should be restored to liberty; and those whose crimes were committed in such circumstances that their release is likely to give rise to a renewal of blood-feuds, or other disturbances of the public peace;

3rd, professional or habitual criminals, and prisoners convicted more than twice.

5. On the other hand, there are three classes of general offenders who are specially entitled to clemency, namely:-

1st, those who have generally borne a good character, and have been led by sudden impulse to commit crimes, such as riot, affray, assault, and culpable homicide in a moment of anger. In this category would also fall women who have committed infanticide to hide their shame, and all other offenders whose crimes were committed in circumstances which would greatly extenu-ate their guilt;

2nd, those who committed the crimes for which they are undergoing punishment, at an early age, and without the display of any special depravity; so that it may be inferred that they erred more from ignorance than from conscious wrong doing;

3rd, those who, though the crimes committed by them were of a grave character, have expiated them to some extent by long imprisonment with good behaviour. In this category are to be included a few life-convicts of the following kinds:- (a) those belonging to class (iii) under Rule I of the Mark Rules of 17th April 1899 who have been in prison for fifteen years, and those belonging to classes (i) and (ii) who have been in prison for twenty years, provided that both have generally behaved well throughout the period of their confinement, and (b) those who have completed half their sentence and who, on the ground of advanced age or infirmities, are fit subjects for clemency.

Class (i). Thugs, robbers by administration of poisonous drugs, and professional hereditary or specially dangerous criminals convicted of heinous organised crime, such as dacoity;

Class (ii). Dacoits and other persons convicted of heinous organized crime who are not professional, hereditary or specially dangerous criminals;

Class (iii). All other prisoners.

6. Prisoners who become eligible for release in the ordinary way by the termination of their sentences on the 1st January 1903, should not be treated as coming among the number to be specially released on that day. Similarly, the ten per cent limit will not apply to prisoners released in pursuance of the further concessions made in paragraphs 8 and 9 below, but only to those who would only be eligible for release under the specific concession stated in paragraph 5. The terms of release of prisoners in accordance with this concession will be the same as those which apply to prisoners released under ordinary rules.

7. The selection for release must be made in fair proportion from all the three classes of offenders specified in paragraph 5, regard being paid, as far as possible, to the character of their original crimes, and the number released is to be spread, as evenly as is feasible, over all localities in the State.

8. The Government of His Highness are also desirous of extending a measure of clemency to offenders serving short sentences of imprisonment, and to general offenders who do not obtain release under the terms stated above. The concession which the Government sanction for short-term prisoners are (i) that all persons under sentence of one month's imprisonment or less, who may have worked out half their sentence on or before the 1st January 1903, may be released on that date without exception, and (ii) that all persons under sentence of one month's imprison-ment or less, who may not have worked out half their sentence on or before the 1st January 1903, may be granted a remission of half their sentence.

In the case of prisoners sentenced to terms of more than one month's imprisonment, who are not selected for release, the following concessions are sanctioned:-

(i) all persons under sentence of imprisonment for more then one but not more than six months may be grant[illegible]

a remission of fifteen days; (ii) all persons under sentence of imprisonment for more than six months but not more than a year, may be granted a remission of one month; (iii) all persons under sentence of imprisonment for more than a year may be granted a remission of one month for each completed year of imprisonment, not exceeding one-half should carry fifteen days' remission, and fractions exceeding one-half, one month's remission.

already served by them. In calculating remissions, fractions of a year of imprisonment

All remissions granted in accordance with these orders are to be restricted to well-conducted convicts. In no circumstances must the boon be extended to such criminals as have been more than twice convicted, or to those who have been committed/ to jail in default of security for keeping the peace; or to any person whose premature release may be deemed by the local authorities to be seriously inexpedient for reasons of local importance.

II. Female Prisoners.

9. The Government are pleased to order the release of all female prisoners whose offences were not of a serious character.

10. In every case of release or remission, the circumstances in which the measures of clemency and grace have been ordered by the Government is to be fully explained to every individual concerned, in order that all may join in the general rejoicings on the occasion of the celebration.

11. In the case of prisoners under sentence of one month's imprisonment or less, who are to be released or granted remissions, under paragraph 8, on the 1st January 1903, the submission of lists to Government for previous sanction is likely to be attended with some difficulty, and will not therefore be insisted upon. A consolidated list of such prisoners released or granted remissions in all the lock-ups in each district and in each of the jails at Bangalore, Mysore and Shimoga, should be submitted as early after the 1st January 1903 as may be practicable.

12. In the case of other prisoners, the Inspector General of Prisons is requested to be so good as to cause two lists, one for prisoners released and the other for those granted remissions, to be carefully prepared in the accompanying form and to submit the same confidentially for the orders of Government on or before the 10th December next. He will further furnish at the same time to every District Magistrate an extract from the said lists containing particulars of the prisoners of his district proposed to be released or granted remission of sentence, and the District Magistrate will, after careful scrutiny, submit to Government by the 15th December any suggestions he may wish to offer on the Inspector General's recommendations. In making the selection, the Inspector General will be guided by the instructions given above, and in doubtful cases he will (and to save time the Superintendents of the Central Jail, Bangalore, and the Mysore and Shimoga Jails may themselves directly) seek the advice and suggestions of the Magistrate of the District or of the Courts or Magistrates by whom the prisoners concerned were convicted. The Inspector General will also simultaneously forward a copy of the lists to the Registrar of the Chief Court, who will place the same before the Chief Judge with a view to the Government being favoured on or before the 15th December next with the opinion of the Chief Court as to the desirability or otherwise of the releases and remissions recommended either generally or in individual cases.

13. A copy of this Memorandum will be forwarded to the Registrar of the Chief Court for the information of the Judges of th

Chief Court, .the Inspector General of Prisons and the Magistrates of Districts.

With 3 spare copies for communication to the Superintendents of Jails with necessary instructions.

14. The orders of Government sanctioning the releases and remissions recommended and prescribing the procedure to be followed in announcing and giving effect to the same, will be communicated to the Officers concerned in due time before the 1st January 1903.

Letter No. 113 dated the 5th February 1903, from the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore, submitting as called for in para 2 of Government Proceedings No. J. 960-72 dated the 27th December 1902, two Consolidated lists of short term prisoners who were released or granted remissions of sentences in all the jails and the Lock-ups in the State on the 1st January 1903.

To the 2nd Councillor - Hon'ble

J.166 5-3-03 Consolidation

Order thereon. No. J 1436-44. 14.3.03

Recorded with the following observations :—

(1) Prisoners Guruva of the Mysore District and Katarva of the Chitaldroog District ought not to have been released on the 1st January 1903, as they had not served out on that date half

2 items Para 1 may well be omitted - Two Consecutive terms of 1 month each were issued 15 days - So we mathematically accurate, they should have served 15-1/2 days as half a day - 31 days - the period of the sentences passed on them respectively, under clause para 2 of Govt Proceedings No. J.960-72 dated 27th December 1902.

(2.) Though the substantive term of sentences passed on the prisoners noted in the margin expired on the dates shown against them, they had still to undergo alternative sentences in default of payment of fine. The District Magistrates' action in having remitted the latter portion of the sentences and released them forthwith without the previous sanction of Government is irregular, as no explicit rules were laid down in such cases.

1. Rama - Mysore Dist - 31st Dec 1902
2. Gunja - Hassan Dt - 1st January 1903
3. Hakeela — do — — do —
4. Mola — do — — do —
5. Biraya alias Heera } — do — — do —
6. Putta alias Hoocha } — do — — do —

(3) The cases of prisoners Lingiah (Bangalore Dt) & Basava (Chitaldroog Dt), who have been

I granted a remission of 15 days each, should have been submitted for the orders of Govt, as the prisoners in question were sentenced to more than a month's imprisonment.
